

Joshua S. Dean

Associate

jdean@sughrue.com

Washington, DC

202.663.7470

Josh is a Patent Attorney with expertise in Electrical and Computer Engineering, Information Technology, and Biomedical Engineering. He is involved in preparing and prosecuting patent applications relating to a wide range of Electrical and Mechanical technologies as well as computer-implemented and software inventions.

Josh's former research areas include: qualitative statistical analysis of autonomous database file recognition algorithms, Lab-on-a-Chip medical devices for urgent bioassay analysis, and physiological signal transduction.

Services

- Electrical / Mechanical
- Biosimilars

Education

- George Washington University (B.S.)
 - Biomedical Engineering
- Catholic University of America (J.D.)

Bar Admissions

- District of Columbia

Memberships

- American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA)