

Sujin Park

Partner

spark@sughrue.com

Washington, DC

202.775.7524

Ms. Park concentrates her practice on mechanical and electrical engineering, computer science and software, semiconductor devices and processing methods, telecommunications, energy, internet and e-commerce. Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Park worked at Korean and US intellectual property law firms, representing clients in all aspects of patent preparation and prosecution. She is also a registered Korean patent attorney.

Ms. Park has served as the president of the Korean American Intellectual Property Bar Association (KAIPBA).

Services

- Electrical / Mechanical

Education

- Handong International Law School (J.D.)
- Seoul National University (B.S.)
 - Computer Science and Engineering

Bar Admissions

- Tennessee
- District of Columbia
- U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

Memberships

- American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA)
- Korean American Intellectual Property Law Association
- Korean Patent Attorney Association

Languages

- Korean